

COMING TO BRUSSELS

By plane to Brussels

From Brussels Airport and Brussels South Charleroi Airport, you can easily take the train, bus or taxi to Brussels.

For trains timetables and tickets, consult the SNCB/NMBS trip planner. Check the mobile site m.nmbs.be or the SNCB/NMBS App.

From Brussels Airport

From Brussels Airport there is a fast, direct connection to the main Brussels railway stations (Brussels North, Brussels Central and Brussels South). There is a direct train every 15 minutes in both directions. You arrive in the centre of Brussels in just 17 minutes. Every passenger travelling to or from Brussels National Airport has to pay a "Diabolo" supplement (5,70€) on top of the ticket price. The standard ticket price for travel between the airport and the Brussels Zone is €9,30 per day (return trip €18,60), which includes the Diabolo fee. If you already have an SNCB ticket, you will have to pay the Diabolo fee separately.

By car to Brussels

Did you know that the entire Brussels-Capital Region is a low emission zone? This means that the most polluting vehicles are not allowed to drive here.

The regulations apply to passenger cars, vans up to 3.5 tonnes, buses and coaches. Whether they are registered in Belgium or not. Not sure if you can enter Brussels with your vehicle? Check it out on www.lez.brussels.

Don't meet the conditions? Then use the transit car parks "Park and Ride" (P+R) and alternatives to the car.

Does your vehicle have a foreign number plate? You'll need to register it!

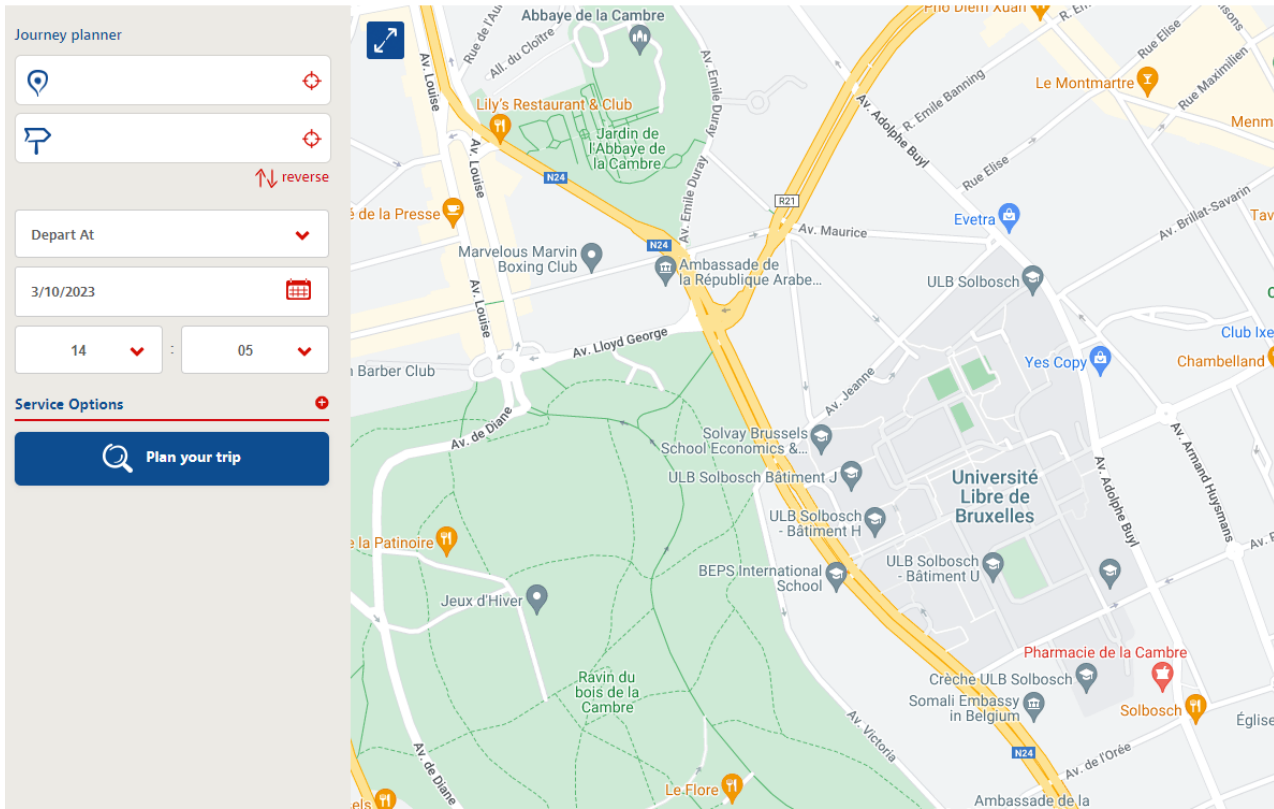

Vehicles with a foreign number plate (except Dutch ones) must be registered before entering Brussels' territory. Registration is completely free. It takes no time at all on www.lez.brussels.
