

Workshop CEBRIG
“Migration and the Labour Market in Belgium”
sponsored by the Fondation Bernheim

Venue

ULB, Campus du Solbosch
Building R42, room R42.2.113
October 11, 2024
From 2 to 6 pm

Programme

(30 min/paper: 20 min talk, 10 min Q&A)

14h – 14h10: Anne-Catherine Chevalier (Fondation Bernheim), Kevin Pineda-Hernandez (ULB – UMONS), François Rycx (ULB) and Mélanie Volral (UMONS)

Welcoming words

Chair : François Rycx (ULB)

14h10 – 14h40: Stijn Baert (UGhent), Louise Devos (UGhent), Dries Lens (UAntwerpen), Louis Lippens (UGhent), François Rycx (ULB) and Mélanie Volral (UMONS)

Labour market disadvantages of citizens with a migration background in Belgium: A systematic review

14h40 – 15h10: Louis Lippens (UGhent)

Competition and hiring discrimination: A meta-reanalysis of correspondence experiments

15h10 – 15h40: Karel Neels (UAntwerpen), Julie Maes (UAntwerpen) and Jonas Wood (UAntwerpen)

Work-family trajectories: comparing women with and without a migration background in Belgium. What does this imply for policy?

Coffee break (15 min)

Chair: Mélanie Volral (UMONS)

15h55 – 16h25: Dries Lens (UAntwerpen)

Employment and upskilling effects of language training for new immigrants

16h25 – 16h55 : Kevin Pineda-Hernandez (ULB & UMONS), François Rycx (ULB) and Mélanie Volral (UMONS)

Immigrant over-education across two generations: The role of gender and part-time work

16h55 - 17h: Anne-Catherine Chevalier (Fondation Bernheim), Kevin Pineda-Hernandez (ULB – UMONS), François Rycx (ULB) and Mélanie Volral (UMONS)

Closing remarks

Drink in the Atrium